Hi Monique,

I wanted to add a little more detail to the response below.

Though LAHSA does not have plans, as current, to extend the Winter Shelter program beyond March 31st, we do fund a large portfolio of Interim Housing (Crisis Housing and Bridge Housing) beds that operate year-round.

Those programs can be found in the list here -

<https://www.lahsa.org/documents?id=2196-lahsa-shelter-list.pdf>

Link: <https://www.lahsa.org/documents?id=2196-lahsa-shelter-list.pdf> Document Type: Fact Sheet, List Project: CES for Single Adults, CES for Youth Program Type ...

Likewise, our partners with the County Health Agency (Departments of Health Services and Mental Health) fund additional Interim Housing beds. For assistance with accessing Interim Housing beds funded by LAHSA, DHS, or DMH you can reach out to Andrew Hill and he can provide you with additional information on how to refer into the year-round programs.

Hope this information is helpful.

Thanks,

Good Evening Monique,

Glad to answer any inquires that come our way.

The Winter Shelter program is a seasonal program that receives funding to operate on a 4-month term beginning December 1 and ending March 31. At this time, there are no plans to extend the Winter Shelter program past the 4 month term.

If you have any further questions on any interim housing programs you can definitely reach out to the LAHSA Interim Housing team who are all cc'd in the email.
